

The No Call List Law in Wisconsin needs to stay the way it is currently in force. It's nice to be at home during the supper hour and not have to worry about the phone ringing off the hook by people you really don't want to be talking with. My only other comment is: If it's not broke, don't fix it. Thank You